Validation-First CPU/GPU Microbenchmarking of AES Implementations in the Context of Symmetric Cryptography Evolution

Marko Mihajlovic[1]

Abstract: Placeholder abstract. Replace this paragraph with a concise description of the purpose, methods, principal results, and contribution of the completed manuscript.

Keywords: Placeholder keyword, Second keyword, Third keyword.

1 Introduction

Placeholder introduction. Describe the motivation, scope, and organization of the manuscript. The citation here demonstrates the numeric reference format [1].

2 Related Work and Research Gap

Placeholder related work. Summarize relevant literature and state the research gap after the manuscript content and sources have been prepared.

3 Methodology

Placeholder methodology. Describe the experimental procedure and define the quantities used in the analysis.

3.1 Example equation

Equation (1) is a typesetting example only:

$$y = ax + b. \tag{1}$$

Here, x, y, a, and b are placeholder symbols to be replaced with quantities relevant to the completed manuscript.

4 Results

Placeholder results. Fig. 1 demonstrates a single figure placed near its first mention.

Placeholder B	—	—

5 Discussion

Placeholder discussion. Interpret the eventual results and describe their limitations and implications.

6 Conclusion

Placeholder conclusion. Summarize the eventual findings and possible future work without introducing new results.

7 Acknowledgments

Placeholder acknowledgments. Replace with appropriate funding or support information, or remove the paragraph if no acknowledgments are needed.
